SAPF Affiliation and Insurance Capitation Fees

To become affiliated with the South Australian Photographic Federation, a club is required to pay an annual affiliation fee, which for 2010 is $28.

The South Australian Photographic Federation currently has Public and Products Liability insurance arranged through insurance brokers Willis Australia Limited. The insurance covers bodily injury and/or property damage up to $10,000,000 for any one claim, anywhere in the Commonwealth of Australia. This insurance policy is renewed on April 1 of each year.

Clubs affiliated with the SAPF may choose to pay insurance capitation fees of $12 per member, which is based on the number of financial members of the club as at the end of the previous calendar year. So for 2010 the fee is based on the number of financial members as at 31 December 2009. Clubs may also choose to arrange their own public liability insurance for their meetings or other activities.

To obtain a certificate of insurance, each affiliated club must contact the insurance brokers direct, so that a document can be made for a specific purpose, eg an exhibition, or for the regular meetings.
